

The 15th Youth Workshop

“Challenging Inequalities: Pathways to Sustainable Future”

Overview

- Host & Organizer: UNITAR CIFAL Jeju
- Sponsor: Jeju Special Self-Governing Province
- Date: Feb 19th (Wed) – 21st (Fri), 2019
- Venue: Jeju Booyoung Youth Center
- Mission: Let's take initiative to address inequalities for sustainable future!
- Background
 - Inequalities are considered a critical risk factor that harms a sustainable society and hopes of future generations
 - Inequalities cannot be discussed only from the perspective of income and wealth, but they interact across the following issues: economic, political, social, cultural, environmental, spatial and knowledge (The World Social Science Report, 2016)
 - In this context, CIFAL Jeju hosts its 15TH Youth Workshop to provide youth, the key players of the future generation with a space to discuss ways in which inequalities can be addressed for sustainable future.
- Event Objectives
 - Through a three-day training for domestic and foreign university students, we aim to provide an opportunity to move towards a sustainable future.
 - In order to move towards a sustainable future, we aim to encourage young people with various nationalities to have a sense of community and partnership to address inequalities as global citizens.
- Participants:
 - Undergraduate and graduate students enrolled in college/university in the Republic of Korea
- Components
 - 1st Day: Lectures and discussion, Group work for action plan
 - 2nd Day: Field visit, Group work for action plan
 - 3rd Day: Final presentation on action plan
